

ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

“John Jacob Astor IV - Unknown - Google Arts & Culture.” John Jacob Astor IV, artsandculture.google.com/asset/john-jacob-astor-iv/OQGL-TYr5_nk5A.

The website basically shows a picture of Astor and where they got it. It shows the date and how old it is.

[John Jacob Astor, Head-and-Shoulders Portrait, Facing Left].” John Jacob Astor, Head-and-Shoulders Portrait, Facing Left - Library of Congress Information Bulletin, Library of Congress, www.loc.gov/item/96503433/.

This website shows a portrait, the title, the date, and basically unimportant information that I don't need.

Archives, The National. “Africa through a Lens | The National Archives.” The National Archives, The National Archives, 1 Mar. 2012, www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/titanic/stories/john-jacob-astor.htm.

This article shows what Astor does, where and when he was born and just who he is.

Gavin Alison. “They Said It Couldn't Sink.” National Archives and Records Administration, National Archives and Records Administration, 2012, www.archives.gov/publications/prologue/2012/spring/titanic.html.

This article is just stating facts about what the Titanic was and who the passengers were and how it was built.

“John Jacob Astor IV. [2 Portraits.]” NYPL Digital Collections, digitalcollections.nypl.org/items/510d47dc-5202-a3d9-e040-e00a18064a99.

This website shows a picture of John Jacob Astor IV and when it was made and who it was by.

irma, and Paul Milstein. “John Jacob Astor, Capitalist.” Ida B. Wells and Anti-Lynching Activism | DPLA, M. King, <https://dp.la/item/c138c59567e88730578ded1a433caa1c?q=john%20jacob%20astor%20>

This website shows a picture of Astor and who found it, when it was found, and the publisher.